

Special Examination Instructions

- This is a restricted open-book examination.
- Only electronic copies (pdf, word documents, and the internet) are permitted to be referred.
- You are not permitted to retain any written documents (hard copies).
- Throughout the examination, you must use a laptop/desktop equipped with a camera and microphone.
- During the examination, you must share your whole screen (not just the browser window), as well as turn on your camera and microphone.
- Subnet/VLSM calculators and/or similar tools are not allowed.
- Cell phones and/or other similar devices are not permitted.
- While you are not permitted to use a mobile phone or other similar electronic devices during the examination, you may keep a mobile phone with you in case you need to contact us.
- You must utilize a single monitor or single laptop screen to answer questions, view soft copies, and access the internet.
- You cannot obtain any kind of assistance/help from any person.
- Other examination rules will be enforced as usual.
- Any breach of the aforementioned guidelines is an examination offense and carries the maximum penalty permitted by university rules.